

LIMB VINEYARDS 2000 "PATTERSON HILL" SHIRAZ [Australia]

WINEMAKER: Ivan Limb

REGION: BAROSSA AUSTRALIA

COLOUR: Red/Purple

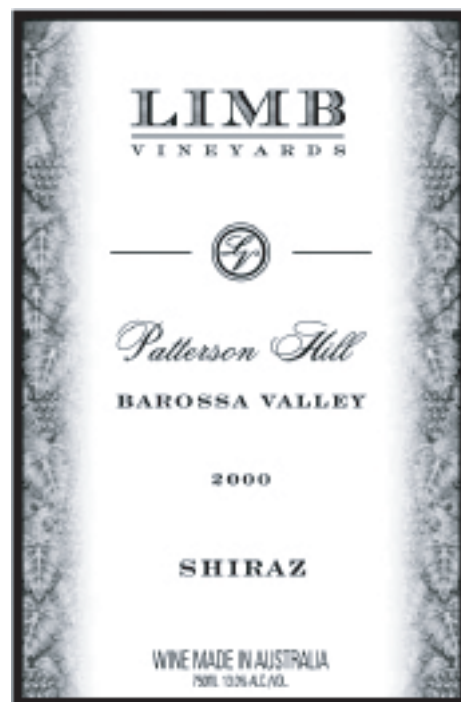

NOSE: Rick ripe plum/raspberry with vanillan oak overtones

PALATE: Soft full-bodied flavours with strong underlying tannin structures, Firm in texture with peppery red cherry, raspberry and anise flavors that linger on a slightly chewy finish. Drink now through 2008.

1,000 cases made

RECOMMENDATION: A wine of this generous nature will be an ideal accompaniment to red meats, game and cheeses. This wine will develop further for many years with cellaring.

Score :: 88

Pecorino Piemontese [Northern Italy]

Pecorino =

Piedmontese =

PIEDMONT - Red White

The North-West Section is largely a green and ruggedly mountain zone with flatlands entwined throughout. This region is famous for wines made from three grapes - Nebbiolo, Barbera (red) and Moscato (white).

Nebbiolo grape wines include Barolo, the best known, a big wins unmatched for its scent & flavor, Barbaresco, slightly softer and Gattinara, elegant & rounded.